

You Found Me by FFH

(Part 1) I've got no where to turn, I've got nowhere to hide, and I've got no alibi

(Part 2) You've been following me, you know my history, and no matter how hard I try

(Part 1) I can't explain away,

(Part 2) The way I feel today,

(all) There's only one thing I can say:

(Chorus) (all) You, You've found me.

You found me and You called me from the wilderness,

From my cave of emptiness,

Yeah, You, You've found me.

You found me in the places of my loneliness

You told me there is more than this,

You captured me with tenderness,

Yeah, You've found me.

(Part 1) There were so many days, trying to figure out ways to explain what I feel inside,

(Part 2) I tried to fill up my soul without losing control;
this desire never did subside,

(Part 1) I'm ready to give in

(Part 2) I know I'll never win

(all) The hide and seek that I've been in

(Chorus) (all) You, You've found me.

You found me and You called me from the wilderness,

From my cave of emptiness,

Yeah, You, You've found me.

You found me in the places of my loneliness

You told me there is more than this,

You captured me with tenderness,

Yeah, You've found me.

In the pit of despair, I was all alone there.

I wasn't looking for You, but You found anyway

You put your hand on my face, then you changed my ways

Nothing can separate me from....

(Chorus) You, You've found me.

You found me and You called me from the wilderness,

From my cave of emptiness,

Yeah, You, You've found me.

You found me in the places of my loneliness

You told me there is more than this,

You captured me with tenderness,

Yeah, You've found me.

(Ending Chorus) You, You've found me.

You found me and You called me from the wilderness,

From my cave of emptiness,

Yeah, You, You've found me.

You found me in the places if my loneliness

You said there's more to life than this,

You captured me with tenderness,

Yeah, You've found me.

Oh, You've found me.

One last challenge from Red & Pastor Steve

This week we played hard, developed new friendships, and learned more about the awesome power of Jesus Christ.

*Our theme song reminds us that God is searching for us.
We challenge you to be found by God and know that there is more to life than the wilderness, the emptiness, and the loneliness without God!*

You, You've Found Me!
